

Phrases for the Personal Profile in your CV:

Select which one(s) you think are appropriate to you or make up your own. Whatever you write, remember you may need to defend your statement during your telephone interview, so prepare examples of where you have demonstrated such qualities in the past.

A dedicated professional with a clear track record of

A proven performer

A committed team player in the hospitality business

Able to work on my own and make decisions within the limits of my brief.....

Having trained in the business, I have realized that I like the challenge of working with people and I see a career in the hotel business as an ideal one for me to pursue.

Honest, hardworking, always on time, collegial, well turned-out, a happy disposition, friendly, patient, calm, experienced, able to handle people, well-spoken, multilingual, all-rounder, focused on results, flexible, able to handle new situations, work well under pressure, good on my feet, good communication skills, good sense of humor, reliable.....